

3rd Annual Conference Plan for Success

October 10th and 11th, 2012, The Gateway Center, Helena, MT.

*Get common workforce management questions answered at these sessions:**

"Help! My Most Experienced People are Retiring."

Keynote: Patrick Ibarra, The Mejorando Group

- Is the increase in retirements affecting your agency or work unit? Are you worried about losing knowledge and key leadership experience? Are you wondering about how to make succession planning work in state government? Our keynote speaker, Patrick Ibarra, will deliver a succession planning approach that will help you determine the leadership your organization needs along with methods to select and assess candidates, and create a succession pool.

Managing Compensation in State Government

Presenter: Jim Kerins, Communication and Management Services, LLC

- Have you heard rumors about compensation? Are you confused about state compensation policy and requirements? Would you like to learn how to successfully manage compensation in state government? Jim Kerins' engaging presentation will answer your compensation questions and provide the knowledge you need to successfully manage compensation in Montana state government. Come prepared to discuss your most challenging compensation questions.

"Leading Change Isn't a Spectator Sport"

Presenter: Patrick Ibarra, The Mejorando Group

- Is your agency dealing with unprecedented or rapid change? Are you interested in learning how to use rapidly changing times to improve service? Keynote speaker Patrick Ibarra's second session will help you identify common scenarios for managing change initiatives and will help you translate the forces of change into a tailwind with practical, tactical and impactful ideas you can begin using tomorrow.

Employee Engagement: Long Term Employee Edition

Presenter: Marc Scow, The Collaboration Institute

- Do you manage long-term or retirement age employees? Have they expressed concern about staying engaged during their final years working for the state? Presenter Marc Scow will help managers and supervisors address this challenging employee engagement issue. As a recently retired state employee, he brings a unique and first hand perspective to this topic. Marc's interactive presentation will offer tips and real world examples to help you engage and involve your long-term employees.

**Session descriptions are tentative. Final session descriptions and complete agenda will be posted late summer.*

